

Jesus, The World's First Superhero

Jesus, The First Superhero

Many many years ago there lived a man named Jesus. Jesus was the Son of God, the most High. He had been born to save the whole world.

From a young age, Jesus knew that He was born to save the people of earth.

Jesus grew up learning all about His Father, God, and studying the things that God had already done for the people of Earth.

When Jesus was 30 years old it was time for him to put on his cape and do what He was born to do. Save the people of Earth.

Jesus gathered his 12

best friends and told them that God had sent Him to save the world, and that He would need their help.

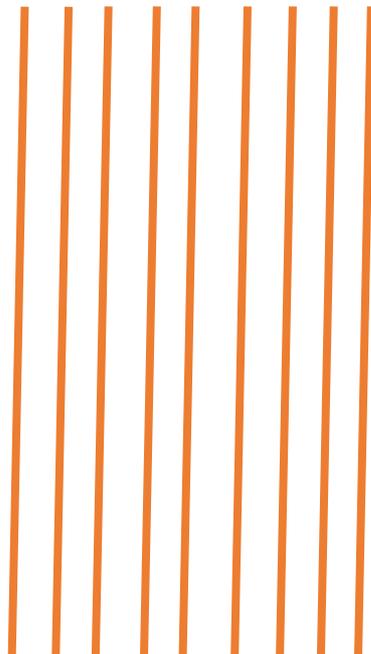

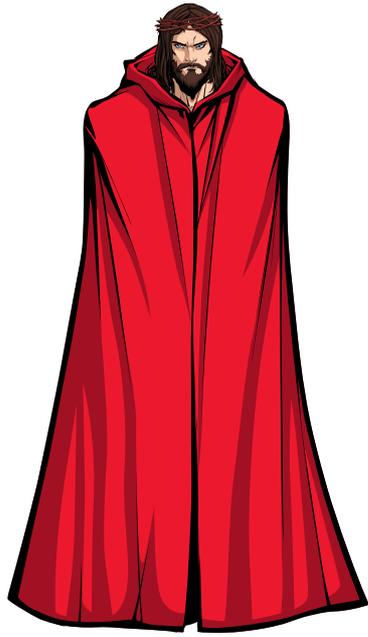

The young hero's went around telling everyone all the things that God had done for them. They helped people, and prayed for them that God would heal and help them, just like before.

Jesus gets Kidnapped

Whilst the hero's were doing God's work, a group of men tried to stop them. They did not believe that Jesus was God's Son. They did not think Jesus could save the world. They wanted him dead.

One night they went to the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus and the heroes were talking to God. When they got there they kidnapped Jesus and locked him up.

Jesus meets Pilate

The men that wanted Jesus killed took Him to their leader, Pilate. They told Pilate to kill Jesus because they did not believe that He was God's son, or the hero that would save the world.

Jesus knew that this was all part of God's big plan to save the world. So Jesus was not angry and did not fight back. He told Pilate that He had come to save him, because God loved Pilate.

Pilate saw that Jesus and God loved the people of earth, so he did not want Jesus to be killed. But Pilate was also very afraid of the men who wanted to kill Jesus

So Pilate asked the people if they wanted Jesus to die, or not. The people had seen and heard all the amazing things Jesus and the heroes had done, but they still chose to kill Jesus.

Jesus is Killed

Jesus was then taken to a place called Golgotha and killed with two criminals.

Whilst he was being killed a crowd gathered, and many people made fun of him. Including one of the criminals that was also being killed.

The other criminal told him that he believed Jesus was a superhero and had come to save the world. Jesus told the criminal that because he believed that Jesus was the son of God, and had come to save the world, he would enter paradise with Jesus and the other heroes.

After a long time Jesus died, and one of Jesus' secret heroes offered his grave for Jesus to be buried in.

Jesus is Alive

The young heroes were all very sad that Jesus had died.

But, three days after Jesus died one of Jesus' female heroes went to visit the tomb. She expected to find Jesus body. But when she arrived the tomb was empty. She ran to tell the other heroes to tell them Jesus had risen and was alive. Just like he told them would happen.

Later, Jesus came to visit the heroes. He reminded them that He was the first superhero, and nothing could beat him. Not even death. He then told them to tell his story to everyone and that everyone who believed in Jesus would be saved and enter paradise. Then Jesus left earth, but his Spirit stayed. The heroes spent their lives telling the story, whilst the Spirit turned everyone who believed the story into heroes, just like Jesus.
